Arch House Deli launch a range of Jubilee cupcakes

Arch House Deli, of Clifton village, Bristol (Deli of the Year 2011/2012) has launched a range of cup cakes specifically designed for the Queen's Jubilee. The cup cakes have been made in a partnership with Layla Pegado a Bristol based master cake maker.

The hand made cakes are available in six unique designs and will only be available during the Jubilee weekend (1st to 5th June). The cakes cost just £2.95 each and can be pre-ordered from Arch House Deli at just £2.95 each.

Arch House Deli, is a multi award winning delicatessen based in Clifton, Bristol, UK. Winners of the 2011 Deli of the Year competition, Winners of the "Discover the Origin" award from Specialty Food Magazine in September 2009, British Cheese Awards "Best New Deli" award in 2007 and "Best New Cheese Retailer" runner up in September 2010.

Layla Pegado is originally from Rio de Janerio where she graduated from law school before switching to fashion design. Layla now specialises in making bespoke cakes for the people of Bristol, where her flair for design and colour results in the creation of amazing cakes that borders on art.
